KUNST VON SEVERINE BEBEK

SEVERINE BEBEK

Severine Bebek is an emerging artist whose works represent a remarkable blend of colour, form and emotion. Her artworks are characterized by her ability to visualize abstract concepts in a way that draws the viewer in. Bebek's work displays a wide range of styles and techniques, ranging from vibrant and powerful brushstrokes to subtle and nuanced details. Her ability to work with different media gives her works an extraordinary variety. As an artist, she manages to create a deep emotional connection with her viewers while leaving room for individual interpretations. Severine Bebek's influence on the contemporary art scene is unmistakable and promises an exciting advancement in her creative journey.

SERIES

HEADS

The artist has been concerned with minds and inner pictures since the beginning of her artistic work. Within this series, the janus heads play a special role. In various interpretations they represent the inner conflicts and voices particularly well.

TORO

The Toro series is the result of the "Atelier del toro" project in Weimar. The artist was inspired by the title Corrida by the singer-songwriter Felix Meyer. Bulls are powerful and beautiful creatures that are picture-worthy in their own right, but are also a symbol of power, dynamism and passion.

ABSTRACT WORKS

The artist uses abstract painting to create works of free interpretation and to stimulate the imagination of the viewer.

RELIGIOUS FIGURES

Religious themes have always occupied artists and always allow for new interpretations. Particularly characters like Maria, Salome and Judas are interesting because of their complexity.

PRINTS

Printmaking represents an exciting field of activity for the artist. The material and technical conditions offer challenges and opportunities, just as they demand concentration and reduction.
